ANDRE PLESSEL-VISIONS

Photographs by André Plessel
OCTOBER 17 – NOVEMBER 6, 2014

New York—Lilac Gallery New York is pleased to present “Andre Plessel: Visions” a solo exhibition of photography presenting André Plessel, from October 17 - November 6, 2014. That will spotlight acclaimed German art photographer Andre Plessel’s signature dramatic, romantic art photographs in black & white, along with a series of his very unique new color processed photographs, which garnered a huge amount of attention at his recent “Processed Photographs” exhibit at the acclaimed Monika Mohr Gallery in Hamburg, Germany, which ran throughout the summer.

Plessel’s new color processed series features his own unique method of adding color to the black and white images by hand, which are then exposed by a developer liquid applied with a brush, thus creating a dramatic new aesthetic look. Each of these photographs is uniquely “one-of-kind” making them even more desirable

His black and white silver gelatin photographs and his color---processed black and white prints are all hand printed and signed. For over twenty-two years now, André Plessel has been driven by his ultimate passion, that of black and white photography. His artwork creates dramatic, sometimes erotic, yet delicate images with great attention to his own style of lighting. It has been said that his artistic photographs convey and play upon sensual tension, as opposed to blatant sexuality.
